January 1, 2012

Happy New Year!

Congratulations on becoming a SCCC Royal! As a new member of the SCCC caring community, I write to personally invite you to begin your journey at SCCC by participating in our New Student and Family Orientation which will be held on January 19 and 20, 2012. While New Student Orientation is not mandatory, our history demonstrates that students who participate are more likely to be our most successful students. We want you to be successful at SCCC.

The transition that you will make through our Orientation is designed to help you get off to a great start. The orientation program will also allow you to meet and connect with faculty, staff and other students and provide you with information about academics, campus life and student services. In addition, for those still needing to do so, you will have an opportunity to take care of financial obligations and complete your registration for classes.

The full schedule for this orientation program along with the Registration Form can be found on the College's website: www.sunysccc.edu. You are encouraged to complete and submit the registration form. Your registration form will be used as your ticket for the various prize drawings held throughout the event (you must be present to win these prizes).

SCCC is an organization which is not just satisfied to meet the demands of the present; it is committed to being the premiere organizational resource for the development of future leaders. As a student, your goal should be to take advantage of the broad range of opportunities offered you for personal growth and development. Although SCCC is growing rapidly, our campus still remains intimate enough that students can participate in an array of activities ranging from student government to service learning, from theatrical performances to athletics, from wellness programs to musical concerts, and from work-study student to peer mentor. Through these opportunities, your educational experience will become enriched.

You have my personal commitment that we will do everything possible to make the educational experience at SCCC personalized and fulfilling. Please explore our web pages fully and if you find you need any additional information or have questions, please never hesitate to contact me or any member of the dynamic Student Affairs team of professionals. Again, I am excited that you have decided to join the SCCC Royals family! I am personally looking forward to meeting you at New Student Orientation.

Sincerely yours,
