

Summer 2021

Financial Aid Disbursement Schedule

- I. Eligible students with a remaining financial aid balance after tuition and fees have been paid will receive credit at The College Store up to the following amounts:

Full-Time student	12 or more credits	$1,000
Three Quarter Time Student	9 to 11 credits	$750
Half Time Student	6 to 8 credits	$500
Less than Half Time Student (Pell Only)	1 to 5 credits	$250

If your financial aid is complete and your tuition bill is paid in full by May 20, 2021, you may be eligible for early bookstore credit beginning on May 21, 2021.

Financial aid credit at The College Store expires on June 23, 2021

- II. All federal financial aid grant and student loans funds remaining after tuition, fees, and books have been paid will be disbursed to the student. The College mails all refund checks to the student's home address. It is the student's responsibility to make sure that their correct mailing address is on file in the Registrar's Office (Elston 213).

Check Mail Date: June 12, 2021

- III. Important: Any student who drops, withdraws, or stops attending his/her classes may not be eligible for any disbursements of state or federal financial aid, and may be liable to repay all or part of the financial aid funds he/she receives. It is the student's responsibility to determine the potential effect on his/her financial aid eligibility before he/she drops or withdraws from courses.

Any students who are decertified for non-attendance in their classes may be required to document that they are attending classes before being eligible for future disbursements.

Fall 2021

Financial Aid Disbursement Schedule

- I. Eligible students with a remaining financial aid balance after tuition and fees have been paid will receive credit at The College Store up to the following amounts:

Full-Time student	12 or more credits	$1,000
Three Quarter Time Student	9 to 11 credits	$750
Half Time Student	6 to 8 credits	$500
Less than Half Time Student (Pell Only)	1 to 5 credits	$250

If your financial aid is complete and your tuition bill is paid in full by August 20, 2021, you may be eligible for early bookstore credit beginning on August 23, 2021.

Financial aid credit at The College Store expires on September 29, 2021

- II. All federal and state aid grant and student loans funds remaining after tuition, fees, and books have been paid will be disbursed to the student. The College mails all refund checks to the student's home address. It is the student's responsibility to make sure that their correct mailing address is on file in the Registrar's Office (Elston 213).

Check Mail Date: October 18, 2021

Student loans for the Fall 2021 semester only are required to be split into two disbursements. The Fall 2021 second disbursement will be mailed on November 8, 2021.

- III. Important: Any student who drops, withdraws, or stops attending his/her classes may not be eligible for any disbursements of state or federal financial aid, and may be liable to repay all or part of the financial aid funds he/she receives. It is the student's responsibility to determine the potential effect on his/her financial aid eligibility before he/she drops or withdraws from courses.

Any students who are decertified for non-attendance in their classes may be required to document that they are attending classes before being eligible for future disbursements.

- IV. Students who are eligible for an EOP stipend will have their EOP check distributed by the Director of EOP on September 20, 2021.
- V. Students who are eligible for a scholarship refund will have their checks mailed on October 18, 2021.

Spring 2022

Financial Aid Disbursement Schedule

- I. Eligible students with a remaining financial aid balance after tuition and fees have been paid will receive credit at The College Store up to the following amounts:

Full-Time student	12 or more credits	$1,000
Three Quarter Time Student	9 to 11 credits	$750
Half Time Student	6 to 8 credits	$500
Less than Half Time Student (Pell Only)	1 to 5 credits	$250

If your financial aid is complete and your tuition bill is paid in full by January 7, 2022, you may be eligible for early bookstore credit beginning on January 10, 2022.

Financial aid credit at The College Store expires on February 16, 2022

- II. All federal financial aid grant and student loans funds remaining after tuition, fees, and books have been paid will be disbursed to the student. The College mails all refund checks to the student's home address. It is the student's responsibility to make sure that their correct mailing address is on file in the Registrar's Office (Elston 213).

Check Mail Date: March 7, 2022

Student loans for the Spring 2022 semester only are required to be split into two disbursements. The Spring 2023 second disbursement will be mailed on April 4, 2022.

- III. Important: Any student who drops, withdraws, or stops attending his/her classes may not be eligible for any disbursements of state or federal financial aid, and may be liable to repay all or part of the financial aid funds he/she receives. It is the student's responsibility to determine the potential effect on his/her financial aid eligibility before he/she drops or withdraws from courses.

Any students who are decertified for non-attendance in their classes may be required to document that they are attending classes before being eligible for future disbursements.

- IV. Students who are eligible for an EOP stipend will have their EOP check distributed by the Director of EOP on February 7, 2022.
- V. Students who are eligible for a scholarship refund will have their checks mailed on March 7, 2022.